

Harry Clayton Hopewell

Obituary

PRINT

We regret to announce the passing of Harry Clayton Hopewell on Saturday, December 16, 2023, in the Cape Breton Regional Hospital, Sydney.

Born November 13, 1946, in Glace Bay, he was a son of the late George and Edie Hopewell.

A red seal electrician for almost 50 years, Harry was a member of local 1852 and travelled extensively across Canada and the United States forming lasting friendships and experiencing new adventures. His stories were endless. Being an avid reader, historian, trivia and puzzle pro, Jeopardy champion in his own living room and geography expert, Harry could be challenged on almost any topic. He will be missed.

Harry is survived by his partner, Margaret Brake; daughter, Bridget; sister, Shirley Chernin, Halifax; brother, Howard; and granddaughter, Amanda.

Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his daughter, Cathy.

Cremation has taken place under the care and direction of Sydney Memorial Chapel. A private interment will take place at a later date.

Memorials may be made to the SPCA or the Heart and Stroke Foundation.
