North Sydney

It is with sadness that we announce the sudden passing of our dear son and brother, James 'Jimmy' Keagan, age 59, on Saturday, July 10, 2021. Born in North Sydney on March 20, 1962, he was the son of Emmanuel and Rosella (Baggs) Keagan of North Sydney. Jimmy had been employed as a welder and electrician in the construction industry, travelling across Canada and the United States for work. He was a proud member of Sydney Local 1852 of IBEW for over 37 years. When he wasn't working, Jimmy enjoyed photography, cycling and gaming. He is survived by his parents, Emmanuel and Rosella Keagan; his brother, Stephen (Michelle) Keagan, Vernon, BC; two sisters, Elizabeth Keagan, North Sydney and Cheryl Keagan (Ron Williams) of Calgary. He is also survived by two uncles, James (Pauline) Baggs, Margaree, NL, Cecil (Yvonne) Baggs, Channel, NL, and his aunt, Mildred (Robbie) MacLean, North Sydney. Jimmy was predeceased by his brother, Daniel Keagan; his maternal grandparents, John and Bertha Baggs, and his paternal grandparents, Edward and Elizabeth Keagan. There will be no visitation by request. A private family service will be held at a later date. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, North Sydney. Funeral arrangements are under the care and direction of the W.J. Dooley Funeral Home, 107 Pleasant St., North Sydney. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Society for the Treatment of Autism. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.wjdooley.com
