

James 'Jim' White

Born in: Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada

Born on: 25/03/1946

Passed away in: Nova Scotia, Canada

Passed away on: 24/06/2010

We, the family of Jim White, regret to announce the passing of our father, grandfather and husband on Thursday, June 24, 2010, at the Victoria General Hospital in Halifax. Jim fought a short but spirited battle with cancer and he passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Sydney, March 25, 1946, Jim was the son of the late Lawrence and Jean (Menzies) White. Jim worked as an industrial electrician (Red Seal) in Alberta for the past few years and also with Sydney Steel for 20 years. He was a member of the IBEW, Local 1852. Jim was known for his love of country music and playing his guitar with the late Frankie Boudreau. He was also known for his great sense of humour.

Jim is survived by his son, Kenny (Donna), Halifax; daughters, Tracy (Colin), Westmount, and Lindsey, Sydney Mines; loving companion and best friend, Ann MacLean, Sydney Mines; and one special grandson, Jacob. He will also be missed by his furry friend, Casper. He is also survived by his brothers, Donnie and Gary, Kitchener, and David, Sydney).

Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his wife, Terry Boudreau, his brother and sister-in-law, Dougie and Sharon White.

In honouring Jim's wishes, cremation has taken place. The service will take place Sunday, June 27 at 2 p.m. at the S.W. Chant & Son Funeral Home, 564 Alexandra St., Sydney. Interment will take place at Forest Haven.
